The film stars Shashi Kapoor, Kareena Kapoor, Aamir Khan, Juhi Chawla, Raza Murad, Arun Govil and Parikshat Sahni. The film tells the story of a disaffected young man who tries to find meaning and purpose in his life by joining the army, and another such man who wants to find his lost love by following her into the army. Mirror was remade in Malayalam as Priyamudayam, in Tamil as Periyar (1995), in Telugu as Rudhramadevi (1996) and in Kannada as Brahmachari (1997), with a different cast. The film was remade in the Philippines as Mira (2015), starring Nora Aunor and Jake Macapagal. It was remade in Indonesia as Biru Pintu Cinta (2009), starring Cristine Reyes and Rizky Julia. It was remade in Bangladesh as Dhekar (2019). Plot The film opens with a soldier (Aamir Khan) waking up in the morning and finding the note "Aaina. Mirror. Here" in his hand. It is later revealed that the note is addressed to him and was dropped by his girlfriend who is in the army. In the present day, sixteen-year-old Prem (Aamir Khan) lives with his father, mother, and sister in a small, poor, "dilapidated" house in a run-down neighbourhood. His father is a businessman, his mother is an aspiring artist, and his sister is an average student. On a dark and stormy night, his father and younger sister go out shopping. His mother goes to see a psychiatrist who says that Prem's lack of ambition is causing his sister to fail in school. The psychiatrist then says that he should join the army and become a hero and save his sister. Prem goes to a recruitment centre to join the army. After his first test in which he fails, he goes to a psychiatrist to find out what's wrong with him. He is seen discussing his problems with a psychiatrist, who says that his mother's interest in her art is more important than his sister. He advises Prem to join the army. Meanwhile, Prem's mother calls him to say that she has found a flat for him to rent. He rents the flat and has to share a room with another tenant, who is later
